

BFEP

BLACK FUTURE EDUCATORS' PATHWAY

OUR SCHOOLS NEED MORE BLACK EDUCATORS Answer the Call!

The MASTER OF TEACHING PROGRAM at OISE, University of Toronto invites all future Black educators to attend an info session to learn more about the Black Future Educators' Pathway to admission.

Designed in collaboration with partner school boards, BFEP aims to connect existing and new initiatives in outreach, admissions, program, and mentoring supports to build an intentional pathway to guide entry into the teaching profession in ways that centres Black excellence and flourishing.

LEARN MORE ABOUT BFEP:

 <https://uoft.me/9PI>

We are offering 2 opportunities to learn more about the BFEP pathway to admission virtually on ZOOM. Hear from renown Black Educators and alumni and learn how BFEP can provide you the opportunity to make a difference in our schools as a Black educator.

SCAN OR CLICK TO REGISTER

NOVEMBER
14TH
6:00PM

NOVEMBER
18TH
10:00AM

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
OISE | ONTARIO INSTITUTE
FOR STUDIES IN EDUCATION